

1. If a bottle of Chablis has the word 'Beauneois' on the label what does that refer to?
 - (a) The company that made the wine is based in Beaune.
 - (b) The name of the vineyard site or lieu-dit.
 - (c) The grape variety the wine is made from.
 - (d) The type of soil the vines are grown in.

2. In what year did the Jadot family buy their first vineyard, the great Beaune Premier Cru Clos des Ursules?
 - (a) 1859.
 - (b) 1826.
 - (c) 1870.
 - (d) 1914.

3. Pinot Beurot is a grape grown in Burgundy. By which name is it more widely known?
 4. What is unique about the wines labelled as coming from the Côte Chalonnaise village of Bouzeron?
 5. What sets the Côte de Nuits village of Marsannay apart from every other Commune in the Côte-d'Or?
 6. What is very unusual about the Morey-Saint-Denis Monts Luisants vineyard in the Côte de Nuits?
 - (a) Different parcels of it are classified as Village level, Premier Cru & Grand Cru.
 - (b) The vines are north-facing.
 - (c) The soil is schist.
 - (d) The vines are un-grafted.
 7. What is the name of the cooperage that Louis Jadot part own in Ladoix-Serrigny?
 8. A Kir is an apéritif made by mixing white wine, traditionally Bourgogne Aligoté, and crème de cassis but what is in the apéritif called a 'Communard'?
 9. Why is the roof of Louis Jadot's La Sablière Winery in Beaune made of chestnut wood?
 - (a) Chestnut repels spiders.
 - (b) It helps regulate the temperature.
 - (c) It adds aromas and so complexity to the wine.
 - (d) Helps prevent noise from damaging the wine.

- 10. In Burgundy, what is unique about wines from the village of Saint-Bris?
- 11. Where in Burgundy does the Confrérie des Chevaliers du Tastevin hold its events?
- (a) The Hospice de Beaune.
 - (b) Château de la Rochepot.
 - (c) Couvent des Jacobins.
 - (d) Château du Clos de Vougeot.
- 12. Over 98% of Beaujolais is red or rosé, what grape variety is used to make the small amount of white Beaujolais?
- (a) Aligoté.
 - (b) Chardonnay.
 - (c) Mondeuse blanche.
 - (d) Jacquère.
- 13. From what Burgundy village does the Mâcon Cru of Saint-Véran take its name?
- 14. Moulin-à-Vent famously produces the richest and most age worthy red wines of Beaujolais, but what is the name of the villages from which they come?
- (a) Moulin-à-Vent and Fleurie.
 - (b) Romanèche-Thorins and Chénas.
 - (c) Beaujeu and Lancié.
 - (d) Villié-Morgon and Lantignié
- 15. If a white Burgundy is labelled as Mâcon-Chardonnay, what does the word Chardonnay on the label tell you?
- (a) The grape variety from which it is made.
 - (b) The style of the wine, creamy and oaky.
 - (c) The village where the grapes are grown.
 - (d) The estate where the wine is made.